WORRIED WIVES— READ THIS

Half Sick, Cross Husbands Will Be Helped by Gude's
Pepto-Mangan

Is he "cross as a bear" when he comes home? Is he nervous and a bit pale and always tired? You can help him back to health with Gude's Pepto-Mangan. He is run-down, and Pepto-Mangan, the wonderful blood tonic with the right kind of iron in it, will build him up. Help your husband get plenty of red blood and he will be well and good-natured again and stronger, too. Good blood, good health, makes happy good humor—that is the way it goes. If you don't give him some kind of a tonic he will probably get worse—they usually do. Go to the drug store and ask for Gude's Pepto-Mangan in liquid or tablet form. It is pleasant to take and works wonders if taken daily for a few weeks.—Advt.

their calendars. He also made the assignments of his assistants for the month. After that he said to the newspaper men:

"Under my administration of this office no person shall be indicted unless the evidence convinces me that the person indicted can be convicted by a jury. There have been too many indictments filed in the past by the Grand Jurors which never should have been filed. My idea in saying this is to announce to the public that much time can be saved the courts by the proper presentation of cases to the Grand Jurors in applying for indictments."

The only new addition to the staff of Judges of the Court of General Sessions to-day was that of Judge Francis X. Mancuso, Judge Mulqueen succeeding himself, and Judge Talley starting in a fourteen-year term after serving a year by appointment. Judge Mancuso was introduced to members of the bar by Judge McIntyre and addresses were made by District Attorney Banton, Roger Foster and Warren Hubbard, Democratic leader of Judge Mancuso's district who presented the Judge with an ivory gavel, the gift of the Democratic District Committee.

The first case called by Judge Mancuso was an Italian charged with a petty crime. The prisoner said he had no money and Judge Mancuso appointed Caesar Barra to defend him. Assistant District Attorney Marra was the prosecutor.
